QUEEN ESTER'S JEWELS (Earrings Only)
 by Melanie Potter
 Friday, March 27, 2009
 1-day Workshop
 9:30AM-4:30PM
 (1 hour lunch break)

Queen Ester's Jewels is fit for a queen with its stately and lavish tiered garlands. Swarovski fancy stones sumptuously embellish the chain across the front. Stitches used in this piece include herringbone, peyote, chevron chain and right angle weave. This workshop covers techniques for the pendant earrings which provides the majority of techniques used in the necklace.
 Skill level: Intermediate
 Tuition: $49 plus required kit* fee $129
 Choose from a collection of 9 individually crafted color palettes.

FLOWER MOTIF
 by Melanie Potter
 Saturday, March 28, 2009
 1-day Workshop
 9:30AM-4:30PM
 (1 hour lunch break)

This stunning necklace and earring set has the central theme of small embellished flowers recurring across the entire surface culminating in a splendid show of glamour. The beveled stones are deep-set with many facets impregnating each flower with fiery sparkle. This set is beaded using chevron chain, peyote, herringbone and right angle weave.
 Skill level: Intermediate
 Tuition: $49 plus required kit* fee $85
 Choose from a collection of 8 individually crafted color palettes.

DRAPED SERPENTINE CHAIN
 by Melanie Potter
 Sunday, March 29, 2009
 1-day Workshop
 9:30AM-4:30PM
